Welcome to CMRRA!

We're in the client service business at CMRRA. How can we serve you?

Dear Music Publisher,

Thank you for considering affiliation with CMRRA, Canada's largest music licensing agency. What has made CMRRA the choice of every multinational music publisher and thousands of independents? Service.

It's the classic business school question: "What business are you in?" Well, CMRRA isn't really in the music business ... or the database business ... or the licensing, royalties or money businesses. We're in the client service business.

Whether you're a publisher with multiple catalogues or a songwriter who owns your songs, you want them registered accurately and promptly, your licences issued on time, and your royalties to be collected effectively and paid without delay. CMRRA can handle all of your royalty needs, from mechanical and online licensing, or collecting revenues for Broadcast Mechanicals or the Blank Media Levy. You want to be confident that licensees are going to be regularly audited, that questions are going to be answered without delay and that you're dealing with a professional, responsive team of experts. That's what our clients expect – and that's what we deliver. Client service is, and will always be, the name of the game.

CMRRA's strength comes from its clients. With no statutory licence, we speak most effectively, and negotiate best, when we've got as many music publishers on board as possible.

I invite you to read each section of our affiliation package for detailed information on all of our services. Part I outlines each individual affiliation offered by CMRRA as well as a checklist to specify the affiliations for which you would like to register. Part II contains the general terms and conditions of the affiliation agreement, and, separately, the terms and conditions specific to each individual affiliation. Part III contains all the other forms we use to help serve you better.

If you have any questions or want to discuss any of these matters, we'd be very happy to hear from you. For fastest response, please call (416) 926-1966 and ask for our Membership Services Department.

Sincerely,

Canadian Musical Reproduction Rights Agency Limited

PART II: AFFILIATION INFORMATION – TERMS & CONDITIONS

PUBLISHER AFFILIATION AGREEMENT GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Definitions: In this Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set out below:

“Catalogue” means one or more musical works customarily owned and/or administered in common by or on behalf of a single person, firm or corporation or group thereof and whose ownership and/or administration is customarily identified by a common name.

“CMRRA” means the Canadian Musical Reproduction Rights Agency, Ltd., a corporation pursuant to the laws of Canada, having its head office in Toronto, Ontario.

“Publisher” means a single person, firm or corporation or group thereof who owns or administers the copyright of a given Repertoire.

“Publisher Affiliation Agreement” means all terms and conditions contained in Parts I, II and III of this document, as agreed upon between Publisher and CMRRA.

“Repertoire” means the copyrighted musical works, taken individually or collectively, including music and lyrics, lyrics alone or music alone, of which Publisher is or may become the copyright owner or in respect of which Publisher is or may become authorized to administer the reproduction right in Canada.

“Term” means the period commencing upon the execution hereof and terminating upon notice either by Publisher or CMRRA as set out herein.

“Work” means a copyrighted musical work in the Repertoire.

2. Engagement of CMRRA: Publisher hereby engages CMRRA as its non-exclusive licensing agent during the Term to provide the services set out herein, and such other services as Publisher may specifically instruct CMRRA to undertake from time to time during the Term. Notwithstanding this section, certain services provided by CMRRA to Publisher as outlined in Schedules ‘A’ through ‘G’ herein require Publisher to engage CMRRA as the exclusive agent for those services, as set out therein.
3. Royalty Collection: Publisher authorizes CMRRA, as its agent, to collect all monies due for the use of the Repertoire by licensees of CMRRA.
4. Verification of Royalties Due: CMRRA shall have the right to verify monies due to Publisher by examination of the books and records of licensees of CMRRA and, in the absence of express instructions from Publisher to the contrary, to enter into settlement agreements with such licensees on Publisher’s behalf.
5. Payment of Royalties: CMRRA shall account for and pay all monies received by it on Publisher’s behalf from all sources, less its Administrative Fee as defined below and without payment of any interest thereon. CMRRA shall make such payments as soon as possible after receipt thereof from its licensees in accordance with service standards and subject to such cost recoveries as may be set and approved from time to time by CMRRA’s Board of Directors.
6. Legal and Other Action: CMRRA may take such steps or undertake such legal actions which, in its sole judgement, may be necessary or advisable to enforce the terms of the MLA and licenses issued by CMRRA (including the withholding or termination of licenses, litigation, negotiation, settlement or abandonment of claims, disputes and other matters relating hereto), for the purpose of collecting monies that may be due to Publisher and to generally protect and enforce Publisher’s rights in Canada.

In no event will any legal action be commenced by CMRRA in Publisher’s name without Publisher’s express written consent. Publisher hereby appoints CMRRA as its agent for the purpose of filing and obtaining registrations of any Work with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office or any successor body thereto. All costs of such legal and other action, including counsel fees, will be borne by CMRRA unless Publisher specifically agrees to do so in advance of the commencement of such action.

7. Third Party Claims: Where CMRRA receives a notice of a claim by a third party to any Work or to entitlement to monies received by CMRRA on Publisher's behalf, CMRRA shall provide Publisher with written notice of the details of such claim and shall place the disputed monies in an interest-bearing escrow account until the status of the third party claim has been resolved as between Publisher and the third party claimant. Upon the resolution of such claim, CMRRA shall pay out such monies with accumulated interest in accordance with the terms of such resolution.
8. Limitation of Liability: Publisher agrees to not hold CMRRA responsible for any indirect, special, incidental, consequential or other damages whatsoever and howsoever caused, whether in an action of contract, warranty, negligence or other tortuous action, even if CMRRA has been informed of the possibility thereof, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or dealings between Publisher and CMRRA including those conducted through CMRRA Direct. CMRRA's total liability under this Agreement shall be limited to commissions received by CMRRA pursuant to the Publisher Affiliation Agreement. Any protection granted to CMRRA shall also apply to CMRRA employees, officers, directors, partners, agents and contractors and CMRRA may hold the benefit of such protection in trust for those parties.
9. Indemnification: Publisher agrees to indemnify CMRRA in the event that CMRRA suffers any damages or losses due to Publisher's negligence, fraud, unauthorized act or breach of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement.
10. Jurisdiction: The laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable herein shall govern as to the interpretation, validity and effect of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement notwithstanding any conflict of laws provisions or Publisher's domicile, residence or physical location. CMRRA and Publisher hereby consent and submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario or, where applicable, the Federal Court of Canada, in any action or proceeding related to or arising out of this Agreement.
11. Administration Fee: In consideration of the services provided by CMRRA to Publisher herein, CMRRA shall be entitled to retain a commission of eight percent (8%) from monies received by CMRRA on Publisher's behalf for Mechanical Licenses (hereinafter defined in Schedule 'A'). The commission rates for all other affiliations are defined in each Schedule, attached hereto as Schedules 'B' through 'G'. The amount of such commissions may be changed from time to time by CMRRA's Board of Directors, but CMRRA shall provide Publisher with no less than ninety (90) days' written notice of any such change.
12. Repertoire Information: Publisher acknowledges that the effective administration of the Repertoire by CMRRA depends upon Publisher providing CMRRA with full, accurate and up-to-date information with respect thereto and agrees to provide CMRRA with such information as CMRRA requires to allow it to maintain its databases, books and records with respect thereto, and to respond on a timely basis to CMRRA's queries with respect thereto. Absent specific notification, CMRRA assumes Publisher has the right to administer and/or assign the specific affiliations and/or services outlined in Schedules 'A' through 'G', and shall act accordingly. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, Publisher undertakes to provide CMRRA with timely notice of any change to the Repertoire with respect to Canada during the term hereof.
13. Termination: Either party may terminate the Publisher Affiliation Agreement on the provision or written notice to the other, in which case the effective date of termination shall be the last day of the next full calendar quarter which commences after the date of such notice. Any licenses issued by CMRRA on Publisher's behalf pursuant to the Publisher Affiliation Agreement shall not be affected by such termination but shall continue in full force and effect until their individual termination dates. Notwithstanding this section, certain services provided by CMRRA to Publisher as outlined in Schedules 'A' through 'G' are subject to specific termination terms and conditions, as set out in such Schedules.
14. Superseding Terms: The terms and conditions contained in Part II, Schedules 'A' through 'G', supersede the General Terms and Conditions contained herein.
15. Affiliations: In order for the terms and conditions contained in each Schedule of Part II to be in force and of effect, Publisher must indicate such intent as per Part I of this Agreement, by initialling and dating each affiliation for which Publisher is contracting with CMRRA. CMRRA shall only act on behalf of Publisher for those Affiliations so initialled and dated.
16. Entire Agreement: This Agreement and the Schedules, Affiliation Selection Checklist and Forms attached hereto constitute the entire agreement between CMRRA and Publisher, and neither party hereto is bound by any representation or inducement not set forth herein.

Schedule 'A': Mechanicals

Every time a Musical Work is mechanically reproduced on a physical product, such as on a CD or LP, the copyright owner of that Work is entitled to mechanical royalties.

Until 1988, Canada's copyright law held mechanical royalties down to just two cents per copy. Through vigorous lobbying, we helped end that punitive rate and opened the door to direct negotiations between music publishers and record companies. CMRRA's efforts lead to the new industry standard: the CMRRA Mechanical Licensing Agreement (MLA) – a comprehensive code of rates and rules that has increased royalties and greatly improved record companies' performance of their obligations. The MLA also deals with administrative provisions such as reporting requirements, reporting formats, as well as the treatment of, reserves, free goods, promotional copies, controlled composition clauses, deletes, and more. The MLA has been signed by each of the major record companies and many independent labels doing business in Canada.

In 2010, the settlement of a class action dealing with unpaid mechanical and video royalties by the major record labels further changed the licensing landscape in Canada. The settlement calls for the implementation of new mechanical licensing systems and processes to avoid the accumulation of unpaid royalties in the future, and to promote the timely payment of royalties to all rightsholders.

All newly released physical audio recordings by the major record companies as of January 1, 2013 will be licensed by CMRRA by way of this new system. To optimize the efficiency of the system, CMRRA is using sophisticated standard electronic formats to exchange musical work, recording and licensing information with its licensees. For further information regarding the Canadian mechanical licensing process, please visit CMRRA's website at www.cmrra.ca. Furthermore, CMRRA is leveraging this new information system to bring multiple efficiencies to the licensing and royalty distribution process related to products released by independent labels.

As a CMRRA mechanical royalties affiliate, you will receive your royalties in the fastest possible way and you will have access to all available information online via CMRRA Direct, such as work registration, licence and royalty statement data. Consider CMRRA's expert staff, and the fact that CMRRA's mechanical licensing commission rate is one of the lowest in the world: eight percent, and then ask yourself: can you deliver faster, more effective service for only eight percent of your Canadian mechanical royalties?

Terms & Conditions - Mechanicals

1. The Terms and Conditions in this Schedule 'A' form an Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions in Part II of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and together form a single executed document.
2. Definitions: In this Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set out below:

"Mechanical License" means a non-exclusive license to reproduce a Work on a contrivance by means of which a musical work may be mechanically reproduced, including but not limited to compact discs and audiocassettes.

"MLA" means the Mechanical Licensing Agreement negotiated by CMRRA with the music industry in Canada as may be in force from time during the Term hereof.
3. Engagement of CMRRA: Publisher hereby instructs CMRRA, for the Term of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and for the purposes set out herein, to grant Mechanical Licenses to persons, firms or companies doing business in Canada on terms which are current for the music industry in Canada as may be approved from time to time by CMRRA's Board of Directors, including but not limited to the terms of the MLA. Publisher may, upon prior written notice to CMRRA, instruct CMRRA to refrain from issuing Mechanical Licenses to any such person, firm or company where Publisher wishes to grant such license directly thereto.
4. Administration Fee: In consideration of the services provided by CMRRA to Publisher in regards to Mechanical Licenses, CMRRA shall be entitled to retain a commission of eight percent (8%) from monies received by CMRRA on Publisher's behalf. The amount of such commission may be changed from time to time by CMRRA's Board of Directors, but CMRRA shall provide Publisher with no less than ninety (90) days' written notice of any such change.
5. CMRRA Direct: Publisher hereby agrees to register with CMRRA for CMRRA Direct, as per the Terms and Conditions outlined in Part II, Schedule 'B' of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement.

Schedule 'B': CMRRA Direct

As a CMRRA client you can have access to CMRRA Direct at no additional cost. CMRRA Direct is our online application from which you can review your song registrations as well as the details of the licences we've issued on your behalf. You can also view and download your royalty statements as needed. CMRRA is committed to moving virtually all client services online using CMRRA Direct. Join us now and get the full benefit of this valuable online communication and research tool.

Terms & Conditions – CMRRA Direct

WHEREAS, in order to facilitate web site communication between CMRRA and Publisher identified on the CMRRA Direct Application form attached hereto as Form 'B', in Part I of this Agreement, upon acceptance by CMRRA of the application made by Publisher ("Application"),

NOW, THEREFORE, Publisher and CMRRA agree as follows:

1. The Terms and Conditions in this Schedule 'B' form an Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions in Part II of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and together form a single executed document.
2. CMRRA will make available to Publisher through its world wide web site (the current URL of which is <http://www.cmrra.ca>) certain services ("CMRRA Direct") including, but not limited to, systems allowing Publisher to provide CMRRA with information and to request information from CMRRA in the ordinary course of Publisher's business with CMRRA pursuant to the Publisher Affiliation Agreement. CMRRA will use its best efforts to make CMRRA Direct available during ordinary business hours but Publisher recognizes that the availability of CMRRA Direct may be interrupted for the purposes of maintenance or upgrading by CMRRA or through factors beyond the control of CMRRA.
3. Publisher represents and warrants that all information it provides to CMRRA through CMRRA Direct shall be true and accurate.
4. Publisher shall be responsible for creating and maintaining their user identification codes ("UserIDs") and associated passwords ("Passwords") to be used by its employees ("Publisher Access Codes"). Publisher, and all persons issued Publisher Access Codes, shall keep same confidential and protect same from disclosure to others. Publisher shall immediately notify CMRRA and shall change any Publisher Access Code that has been lost, stolen, misused or may have become known to anyone other than the person to whom it was issued by Publisher.
5. CMRRA shall be entitled to rely upon any message, instruction or notification ("Messages") sent by a person who has authenticated himself or herself using a Publisher Access Code and Publisher agrees to assume the risks inherent in such dealings. Any such Messages shall be effective as if executed and delivered by Publisher as an original signed document. Except and unless due to the negligence of CMRRA, Publisher shall be bound by and responsible for any such written Messages received by CMRRA from a person using a Publisher Access Code, whether actually authorized by Publisher or not. Publisher acknowledges that Messages may now or may in the future include advice relating to new releases or notification of changes to song ownership, royalty payment and mailing instructions.
6. Publisher acknowledges that beyond initially confirming Publisher's identity through the issuance of a confidential Publisher confirmation code, CMRRA is under no obligation to confirm the actual identity or the authority of any user of a Publisher Access Code. CMRRA may decline or delay acting upon any instruction or executing any transaction for any reason, including, but not limited to, ambiguous or incomplete instructions, or concerns about the authenticity of the instructions received by CMRRA.
7. From time to time, Publisher may be asked to signify its agreement to an on-line contract by clicking on a specified button (such as one marked "AGREE" or "ACCEPT") located on an applicable form on CMRRA Direct. CMRRA may rely upon such action as equivalent to Publisher's signed written agreement to such a contract with equivalent legal force and effect.
8. Notwithstanding Part II, section 13 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, CMRRA may terminate any product or service, or Publisher's access to any product or service, located on CMRRA Direct at any time without having to provide written notice to that effect.
9. CMRRA may provide any notices associated with this Agreement to Publisher through CMRRA Direct.

10. Publisher agrees that CMRRA's records of electronic communications will be admissible in any legal, administrative or other proceeding as equivalent to original written documents and shall be conclusive proof of the information contained in such electronic communications.
11. Publisher acknowledges that the Internet is a rapidly evolving technology and that CMRRA cannot ensure the privacy or authenticity of any information or instructions that Publisher sends or are sent to Publisher over the Internet.
12. Publisher shall provide CMRRA with all requested information and materials as outlined in the CMRRA Direct Registration Form, attached hereto as Form 'B', in Part I of this Agreement. If Publisher does not submit the aforementioned information and materials, Publisher will not have access to CMRRA Direct.

A completed copy of the CMRRA Direct Registration Form will be returned to Publisher indicating CMRRA's acceptance of Publisher's application. CMRRA will create and supply Publisher an Administrator Access Code to be used by Publisher for creating, deleting and managing Publisher Access Codes.

Schedule ‘C’: Online Music Distribution and Webcasting

The pace of change keeps getting faster and is nowhere more apparent than in the online world. Tens of millions of songs are being downloaded and streamed every year from a growing number of sources. Each time a song is streamed or downloaded, whether to a home computer or a portable device, a permanent or temporary copy of that song is created. And just like the reproduction of musical works on physical copies, the copyright owner is entitled to royalties for these digital reproductions.

Because most online music services offer a large variety of songs and recordings, they often cannot license each musical work before offering it for sale on their site. In addition, the licensing of such a large quantity of works cannot be done effectively from multiple sources. In order to streamline their operation, the online music services look to CMRRA to obtain licences for the largest number of musical works possible at a standard royalty rate. For this reason, CMRRA, together with SODRAC (Société du droit de reproduction des auteurs, compositeurs et éditeurs au Canada), jointly license their repertoires to the online music services under the umbrella of CMRRA-SODRAC Inc. (CSI).

If you want your songs to be licensed for online distribution in Canada, we urge you to sign up with CMRRA. CMRRA is here to license these uses through CSI, and collect royalties generated from the ever-growing popularity of online music distribution. For further information on the royalty rates applicable in Canada for online music distribution, please visit CSI’s website at www.cmrrasodrac.ca.

Terms & Conditions – Online Music Distribution and Webcasting

1. The Terms and Conditions in this Schedule ‘C’ form an Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions in Part II of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and together form a single executed document.
2. Definitions: In this Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set out below:
 - (a) “Permanent Download” means the electronic digital transmission of a musical work, which transmission results in the creation of a copy of the musical work on a user’s local storage device (including, but not limited to, the hard drive of the user’s computer, whether in random access memory or otherwise, and any recordable medium, whether or not embedded in a portable device), where such copy is available for listening at any time;
 - (b) “Limited Download” means the reception of an electronic digital transmission of a musical work, which transmission results in the creation of a copy of the musical work on a user’s local storage device (including, but not limited to, the hard drive of the user’s computer, whether in random access memory or otherwise, and any recordable medium, whether or not embedded in a portable device), where such copy is only available for listening for a limited time or for a limited number of times;
 - (c) “Reproduction” means the fixation of a musical work by any analog, digital, or other process now or hereafter devised, on any recording medium in any format or material form now known or hereafter devised including, but not limited to, the random-access memory (RAM) or hard disk of a computer and/or the random-access memory (RAM) or hard disk of a computer (including a server) at a remote location;
 - (d) “Stream” means an electronic digital transmission of a musical work, which transmission is designed so as not to result in the creation of a copy of the musical work on a user’s local storage device (including but not limited to the hard disk of the user’s computer, whether in random-access memory, read-only memory, or otherwise, and any recordable medium, whether or not embedded in a portable device), which copy could be available for listening other than at substantially the same time as the original transmission, and includes, for greater certainty: (i) a stream of one or more musical works selected by the user, which stream may be listened to at a time chosen by the user (an “On-Demand Stream”); (ii) a stream of a series of musical works selected by the transmitter of the stream, which stream can be listened to only at a time chosen by the transmitter (a “Non-Interactive Stream”); and, (iii) the streaming of musical works by a Webcasting Service;
 - (e) “Webcasting Service” means a service that provides continuous streaming of original audio programming, which programming: (i) consists in whole or in part of musical works; (ii) may be themed by genre or otherwise; and, (iii) is not subject to advance knowledge of or control by the user as to the sequence or timing of transmission of the musical works included in the program;

- (f) “Musical work” includes, for the purposes of the definitions in Subparagraphs 2(a), 2(b), and 2(c) above, a musical work embodied in a sound recording; and any terms defined in the Publisher Affiliation Agreement and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Publisher Affiliation Agreement.

3. Engagement of CMRRA: Publisher hereby authorizes CMRRA, for the Term of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and for the purposes set out herein, to act as its non-exclusive agent to authorize, by way of licenses granted by CMRRA on Publisher’s behalf (“Online Licenses”), the reproduction of copyrighted musical works in the Repertoire by persons, firms or corporations doing business in Canada (collectively, the “Online Music Services”) for the purposes of any type of Permanent Download (as defined in this Schedule ‘C’), and as its exclusive agent for the purposes of any type of Stream or Limited Download (each as defined in this Schedule ‘C’) that either originates from a source in Canada or is transmitted to a computer (which for purposes of this Schedule ‘C’ includes, but is not limited to, all types of recording media, storage media, and receiving devices now known or hereafter devised, including portable devices) in Canada.

Publisher hereby authorizes CMRRA to grant Online Licenses to Online Music Services in Canada on terms which are current for the music industry in Canada as may be approved from time to time by CMRRA’s Board of Directors, or pursuant to Tariffs filed by CMRRA before the Copyright Board of Canada.

4. Administration Fee: In consideration of the services provided by CMRRA to Publisher in regards to Online Licenses, CMRRA shall be entitled to retain a commission of ten and one half percent (10.5%) from monies received by CMRRA on Publisher’s behalf. The amount of such commission may be changed from time to time by CMRRA’s Board of Directors, but CMRRA shall provide Publisher with no less than ninety (90) days’ written notice of any such change.
5. Termination: Notwithstanding Part II, section 13 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, Publisher may terminate the authorization granted to CMRRA under this Schedule ‘C’, with respect to any catalogue of works in the Repertoire, at any time upon six (6) months’ written notice to CMRRA. CMRRA may terminate this agreement if it elects to entirely cease carrying on business with respect to Online Licensing, but in no case shall CMRRA give Publisher less than six (6) months’ notice of such termination.

Schedule ‘E’: Broadcast Mechanical

Several years ago, CMRRA began licensing the reproduction of musical works made by commercial and satellite radio stations in the course of their operations. Radio broadcasters create databases using digital copies of songs, allowing them to find songs faster, create programming easier and generally make their business more efficient. Making digital copies has increased profits for broadcasters, and copyright owners are entitled to a broadcast mechanical royalty, as a result of that copying.

Canada’s Copyright Act makes this a “license it or lose it!” proposition. Unlike mechanical licensing, you can’t collect broadcast mechanical royalties on your own. The only way to collect this money is through a copyright collective, so we urge you to sign up with CMRRA. If you don’t licence this right through a collective such as CMRRA, you will miss out on this significant source of revenue.

Commercial and satellite radio stations are licensed pursuant to tariffs certified by the Copyright Board of Canada. In addition, CMRRA has entered into licensing agreements with pay-audio music services and with the public-owned Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC), and we’re pursuing the licensing of other non-commercial radio stations, such as campus and community radio stations. These broadcasters may be the subject of one or more separate tariffs or licensing agreements in the future. Your participation in this program will ensure that you are signed up to benefit from all future licensing activities of a similar nature.

Terms & Conditions – Broadcast Mechanical

WHEREAS the Copyright Act of Canada (“Act”) has been amended to create certain exceptions to the right of reproduction of copyrighted musical works, allowing broadcasting undertakings to make certain reproductions of copyrighted musical works without the authorizations of their respective owners,

AND WHEREAS “broadcasting undertaking” has the meaning as defined in section 30.9(7) of the Act,

AND WHEREAS the effect of the said exceptions is nullified where a license to make such reproductions is available from a collective society,

AND WHEREAS CMRRA qualifies as a collective society for the purposes of the Act.

AND WHEREAS CMRRA has filed a series of Tariffs with the Copyright Board of Canada (“Board”) setting rates for Broadcast Mechanical royalties,

AND WHEREAS Publisher and CMRRA intend to benefit from the nullification of the said exceptions and, in this regard, intend to make licenses available to broadcasting undertakings authorizing them to make reproductions for the purpose contemplated in the above-enumerated sections of the Act, and otherwise,

NOW, THEREFORE, Publisher and CMRRA agree as follows:

1. The Terms and Conditions in this Schedule ‘D’ form an Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions in Part II of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and together form a single executed document.
2. Assignment to CMRRA: Publisher hereby assigns to CMRRA, for the Term of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and for the purposes set out herein, the exclusive right to authorize broadcasting undertakings in Canada to fix or reproduce any and all musical works presently included in those catalogues which Publisher has engaged CMRRA to represent for the purposes of mechanical licensing, as well as any new works that may be added to such catalogues during the term hereof and any further catalogues and musical works contained therein which Publisher engages CMRRA to represent for the purposes of mechanical licensing during the term hereof. Notwithstanding Part II, section 2 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, the assignment of rights outlined in this Schedule ‘D’ is exclusive.
3. Limitations: Publisher’s assignment of such right to CMRRA is limited to the right to authorize reproductions of such musical works by such broadcasting undertakings in the ordinary course of their broadcasting activities and the right to authorize audio reproductions of such musical works by such broadcasting undertakings on an open-ended, blanket basis for use in their broadcasts but does not include the right to authorize such broadcasting undertakings to reproduce such musical works in commercials produced by or on behalf of broadcasting undertakings.
4. Administration Fee: In consideration of the services provided by CMRRA to Publisher in regards to Broadcast Mechanical royalties, CMRRA shall be entitled to retain a commission of eight percent (8%) from monies received by CMRRA on Publisher’s behalf. The amount of such commission may be changed from time to time by CMRRA’s Board of Directors, but CMRRA shall provide Publisher with no less than ninety (90) days’ written notice of any such change.

5. Termination: Notwithstanding Part II, section 13 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, Publisher may terminate this agreement at any time upon six (6) months' written notice to CMRRA at the above address. CMRRA may terminate this agreement if it elects to entirely cease carrying on business with respect to the collection of royalties for broadcasting undertakings in Canada but in no case shall CMRRA give Publisher less than twelve (12) months' notice of such termination.

Schedule 'F': Blank Media Levy

Since 1997, Canada's copyright law has provided for the collection of a levy on the sale of blank media such as recordable CD's. Every time a CD or other blank media is sold, publishers are entitled to a part of that revenue. According to the legislation, the only way for publishers to collect this easy and excellent source of income is through a collective society. CMRRA collects royalties from the Blank Media Levy as a member of the CPCC (Canadian Private Copying Collective), and passes them on to its publishers.

Remuneration for private copying began in 2000. Since information is not available concerning exactly what tracks of recorded music are copied, CPCC has used – as proxies – the two most comprehensive available sources of information – data indicating the recorded music that is sold in retail outlets in Canada and data concerning the recorded music that is broadcast by commercial radio stations and CBC. Airplay and Sales data are believed to provide the best available indication of the titles that Canadians typically copy for private use, and are weighed equally. You cannot collect these royalties on your own, so we urge you to sign up with CMRRA to collect them for you – don't miss out on this source of revenue!

Terms & Conditions – Blank Media Levy

WHEREAS the Copyright Act of Canada ("Act") has been amended by the addition of Part VIII to create a levy on the sale of blank audio recording media by copyright collectives,

AND WHEREAS CMRRA qualifies as a collective society for the purposes of the Act and the above-enumerated sections thereof,

AND WHEREAS CMRRA has filed a series of Tariffs with the Copyright Board of Canada ("Board") setting rates for the said levy and has joined together with other collectives to form the Canadian Private Copying Collective ("CPCC") and the Board has certified the Tariffs of CMRRA and CPCC,

AND WHEREAS Publisher wishes to engage CMRRA to collect said levy on its behalf,

NOW, THEREFORE, Publisher and CMRRA agree as follows:

1. The Terms and Conditions in this Schedule 'E' form an Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions in Part II of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and together form a single executed document.
2. Assignment to CMRRA: Publisher hereby assigns to CMRRA, for the Term of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and for the purposes set out herein, all rights of remuneration for private copying for the term hereof with respect to any and all musical works presently included in those catalogues which Publisher has engaged CMRRA to represent for the purposes of mechanical licensing, as well as any new works that may be added to such catalogues during the term hereof and any further catalogues and musical works contained therein which Publisher engages CMRRA to represent for the purposes of mechanical licensing during the term hereof. Notwithstanding Part II, section 2 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, the assignment of rights outlined in this Schedule 'E' is exclusive.
3. Administration Fee: In consideration of the services provided by CMRRA to Publisher in regards to the Blank Media Levy, CMRRA shall be entitled to retain a commission of eight percent (8%) from monies received by CMRRA on Publisher's behalf. The amount of such commission may be changed from time to time by CMRRA's Board of Directors, but CMRRA shall provide Publisher with no less than ninety (90) days' written notice of any such change.
4. Termination: Notwithstanding Part II, section 13 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, Publisher may terminate this Addendum at any time upon six (6) months' written notice to CMRRA. CMRRA may terminate this agreement if it elects to entirely cease carrying on business with respect to the collection of the private copying levy in Canada but in no case shall CMRRA give less than twelve (12) months' notice of such termination.

Schedule ‘G’: Reprographic Reproduction

The print version of musical works has long been reproduced in a variety of contexts, such as photocopies of sheet music and lyrics in elementary and secondary schools. Every publicly-funded school in Canada (outside Quebec) is subject to the Access Copyright Elementary and Secondary School Tariff. Recently, Access Copyright expanded the scope of this tariff to include permission to reproduce musical works published in print.

CMRRA and Access Copyright have entered into an agreement whereby Access Copyright will collect royalties generated from the use of this reprographic right, and CMRRA will distribute those royalties to the appropriate copyright owners. If you want the print versions of your musical works to be licensed for reprographic uses, we urge you to sign up with CMRRA so that the applicable royalties may be collected and distributed to you.

Terms & Conditions – Reprographic Reproduction

WHEREAS Access Copyright, The Canadian Copyright Licensing Agency (“Access Copyright”) has filed a proposed tariff with the Copyright Board of Canada for, inter alia, the reproduction of musical works published in print (the “Access Copyright Elementary and Secondary School Tariff, 2010-2012”) and plans to file additional proposed tariffs to cover the reproduction of works by the same sector in the future (collectively, the “Tariffs”);

AND WHEREAS Access Copyright and CMRRA have entered into an agreement in which Access Copyright is designated and appointed the “collecting body” for CMRRA with respect to the royalties payable for the reproduction of musical works published in print, pursuant to the Tariffs (the “Access Copyright Mandate Agreement”);

AND WHEREAS the Access Copyright Mandate Agreement provides that CMRRA shall, among other things, distribute to certain music publishers the royalties payable for the reproduction of musical works published in print, pursuant to the Tariffs;

NOW, THEREFORE, Publisher and CMRRA agree as follows:

1. The Terms and Conditions in this Schedule ‘F’ form an Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions in Part II of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and together form a single executed document.
2. Definitions: In this Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set out below:
 - a. “Published Musical Works” means any works of music or musical composition, with or without words and includes any compilation thereof, protected by copyright in Canada, or a part of such work, of which print copies have been issued to the public with the consent or acquiescence of the copyright owner.
3. Engagement of CMRRA: Publisher hereby assigns to CMRRA, for the Term of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, and for the purposes set out herein, the exclusive right to exercise and manage the Publisher’s reprographic reproduction rights for Published Musical Works in the Repertoire through collective licensing pursuant to the Tariffs, and to authorize Access Copyright to do the same on behalf of CMRRA as its collecting body. For clarity, this authorization authorizes Access Copyright to license persons to use Published Musical Works pursuant to the Tariffs.
4. Royalty Collection: Publisher authorizes CMRRA, as its agent, to collect all monies received for the use of Published Musical Works in the Repertoire pursuant to the Tariffs.
5. Administration Fee: In consideration of the services provided, CMRRA shall be entitled to retain a commission of eight percent (8%) from monies received by CMRRA on Publisher’s behalf from Access Copyright for the use of Published Musical Works in the Repertoire pursuant to the Tariffs. The amount of such commission may be changed from time to time by CMRRA’s Board of Directors, but CMRRA shall provide Publisher with no less than ninety (90) days’ written notice of any such change.
6. Termination: Notwithstanding Part II, section 13 of the Publisher Affiliation Agreement, Publisher may terminate the authorization granted to CMRRA under this Schedule ‘F’, with respect to any catalogue of works in the Repertoire, at any time upon six (6) months’ written notice to CMRRA. CMRRA may terminate this agreement if it elects to entirely cease carrying on business with respect to the collection of royalties for reprographic reproduction, but in no case shall CMRRA give Publisher less than six (6) months’ notice of such termination.

PART III: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Appendix 'A': Song Registrations

Upon affiliation with CMRRA, you may submit your song registrations. There are four methods by which you can register your songs with CMRRA. All of them require that you provide the following information:

- Song title: We require the original song title as well as any alternate title for the song. This will speed up the licensing process in the event a license application is submitted for the alternate title. An alternate title is often referred to as an AKA which stands for “also known as”.
- Writer(s)/Arranger(s): We require the full name of all writers for each song. If you are notifying us of a copyrighted arrangement of a composition in the public domain, please provide the full name of the original authors and composers if known as well the name of the arranger(s).
- Publisher and Share Information: We require the name of the publisher and the total percentage administered by such publisher. The total percentage should incorporate both the writer and publisher shares. If you are a songwriter that has not entered into an agreement with a publishing company, you can consider yourself the publisher of your songs. Please review the examples provided below to help you determine what percentage you should indicate on your registration.
- IPI Number: The IPI number is the Interested Party Identifier. This number serves to identify all rights holders, such as authors, composers and publishers, within the music industry. Each number is assigned and tracked in a global system operated by SUIA. Although the IPI number is not mandatory to register your songs with CMRRA, it would be helpful for you to provide this information when available. For more information on the IPI number, please visit www.ipisystem.org.

Example of Publisher and Share Information:

Example 1: You and a co-writer have written a song. You both agree to divide the ownership in half and individually collect the mechanical royalties for your respective share. Since you are entitled to collect half the song, the total percentage for your share would be 50%.

Example 2: You have co-written a song with several writers. All of you have agreed to divide the ownership of the song between each writer but you also agree that only one of you will collect the mechanical royalties for everyone’s share. Once collected, that person will be responsible for distributing the income to the individual writers. If you are the person entitle to collect for all shares, your registration should indicate a share of 100%.

Example 3: You are a publisher who has entered into a publishing agreement with a writer. According to this agreement, you are entitled to collect both the publisher and the writer shares. If the song you want to register with CMRRA was solely written by your writer, your registration should indicate a share of 100%. Important: Please do not register your ownership as “50/50”! We are unable to add such information to our database.

Song Registration Methods: You can register your songs with CMRRA either electronically or on paper (by mail or fax). The preferred method is to file electronically using the following formats:

1. The best electronic means of registering songs with CMRRA is by using the Common Works Registration (CWR) format. The purpose of CWR is to provide mid to large sized publishers and societies with a standard format for the registration of works. It allows publishers to create one registration file and send it to participating societies around the world resulting in significant savings in time and resources. For more information on the CWR format, please visit www.commonworksregistration.com. If you are equipped to register your songs in CWR format, please contact's CMRRA Membership Services Department to set up the proper channels to deliver your files.
2. The second best alternative for all publishers is to register songs by emailing an electronic spreadsheet, such as Microsoft Excel to registrations@cmrra.ca An Excel template is available for song registrations upon request.
3. The next best alternative is to register your songs by typing the necessary information in an email and forwarding it to registrations@cmrra.ca
4. If the first three options are not available to you, you may send your registrations in paper format, either by mail or fax. CMRRA has a form available for this purpose although the use of this form is not mandatory as long as your registration contains all the above information. Please contact CMRRA to obtain a copy of this form entitled "Advice of Copyright Information".

If you have any questions regarding the registrations of your songs or catalogue information, please contact us at 416-926-1966 and ask for our Membership Services Department. We're here to help!

Appendix 'B': Advice of Canadian Release

Please use this form to provide information regarding the recordings you wish CMRRA to license on your behalf. Fields marked * are mandatory. All other fields are optional and should be completed where applicable. Areas in grey are for CMRRA office use only. NOTE: The use of this form is not mandatory – you are at liberty to provide CMRRA with this information in a different format. If you choose to use this form, please complete a separate form for each song/recording. If you have any questions about this form, please refer to the enclosed instructions or call CMRRA's Membership Services Department.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE COMPLETION OF CMRRA'S "ADVICE OF CANADIAN RELEASE" FORM

SECTION A - Publisher Information: In this section, we are seeking information about you, the publisher of the musical work in question.

SECTION B - Musical Work: In this section, we are seeking all pertinent information regarding the compositions you own or administer.

Song Title and AKA: Please indicate the complete song title in the space provided. Please list any alternate titles to the song (AKA's) as well. This will speed up the licensing process in the event we receive a license application for an AKA title.

Composer(s)/Arranger(s): Please indicate the full name of all writers for each song. If you are notifying us of a copyrighted arrangement of a composition in the public domain, please indicate the full name of the arranger(s).

Publisher Name and Share (%): Please indicate the name of the publisher and the total percentage administered by such publisher. The total percentage should incorporate both the writer and publisher shares. If you are a songwriter that has not entered into an agreement with a publishing company, you can consider yourself the publisher. Please refer to Part III, Appendix A "Song Registrations" of CMRRA's Affiliation Kit for further information on Publisher and Share requirements.

SECTION C - Recording: In this section, we are seeking all pertinent information respecting the recording of the musical work(s) you wish CMRRA to license on your behalf.

NOTE - "In-House" Releases: Where a person or entity is producing/manufacturing a recording on which the musical works are fully owned/administered by this same person/entity, we consider this an "in-house" recording, where everything is handled under one roof. Because the person making the recording is also the copyright owner of the musical composition(s), licenses from CMRRA are not necessary. As such, you do not need to complete the Advice of Canadian Release form to inform us of in-house recording information, unless the song has been released digitally.

Record Company: Provide the full name of the record company releasing the recording as well as its address, contact name, phone and fax information.

Artist: Provide the full name of the artist or group performing the composition of the recording.

Vocal Version/Instrumental Version/Used in Medley: Indicate which version of the composition is performed (vocal or instrumental) and if it is performed as part of a medley.

Album Title: Provide the full title of the album.

Release Date: Indicate the date at which the product is/was released for sale or give away, if known.

Running Time: Provide the running time of the composition as embodied in the recording, if known.

Contrivance and Catalogue No.: Provide the format of the recording (CD, digital, etc.) and catalogue number assigned by the record company for each contrivance. (A catalogue number identifies a product and is often located on the product itself and/or accompanying printed matter.)
